THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST JUNE 2, 2024

Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them and said, "Take it, this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." Mark 14: 12-16, 22-26

In the Eucharist, bread and wine are transformed by the Spirit of God into the body and blood of Christ, and what we receive in this sacrament should transform us into sacraments, as well - sacraments of God's love for one another, signs of God's presence to our families and communities, revelations of a humanity bound together in God's spirit of compassion, justice and peace. In our coming to this table, we rise from the brokenness of our disagreements and divisions to become Christ's Church of peace. The Eucharist makes each one of us a minister of reconciliation, a prophet of justice, a bridge of mercy. As the Eucharist animates the Church with the life of Christ, the Eucharist animates our lives in the love and compassion of God. "If you have received worthily," St. Augustine preached, "you are what you have received."
