Weekly Meditation

1st Sunday of Advent

When I was a young priest, about one year after ordination, I was called to the hospital to anoint a dying mother of three young children. She had a painful, terminal cancer. After celebrating Last Rites with her, I said, "Don't be afraid." She looked me square in the eye from her hospital bed and said, "Oh Father, I am in a lot of pain, but I am not afraid. Something wonderful is about to happen." A few days later she died.

Christians face the ending of our personal various "worlds" in a totally unique way. This first Sunday of Advent, Jesus says that when people see their world falling apart, they find themselves "fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world" (Luke 21:26). In our fear, our natural response is to check out, to hide our heads in drunkenness, distraction, and false securities. But Jesus commands us to "look up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." He then compares what's coming to a lovely summer in full bloom. That's what the cross and resurrection empower us to do, as strange as it may seem.

Advent challenge: What world in your life is collapsing? A relationship, a dream, a work opportunity? Maybe you're troubled by a crumbling world in the political or economic sphere. Or maybe someone you love is seriously ill or dying. Name that world or worlds. Then pray: "Lord, help me to not faint with fear. Help me to raise my head and see your redemption coming."

— Father John Muir

St. Luke Giving Tree

Our St. Luke Giving Tree continues to remain in the church with tags to spread the joy of Christmas to those in need. Over the next few weeks, we invite you to take a tag from the tree and share in this meaningful tradition of generosity. This year, we are focusing on supporting organizations within our community, including St. Augustine Health Center, Zellie's Home (supporting moms in need), The Centers, O'Neill Nursing and Assisted Living Residents, Community Meal, and many others. In addition, a complementary Giving Tree for our PSR students will assist Birthright, allowing our young learners to embrace the spirit of giving. Please do not wrap your gift unless the tag specifically requests it, and attach the tag securely to your gift. Gifts should be dropped off in McBride Hall the weekend of December 14th and 15th, 15 minutes before or after the Masses. Thank you for making Christmas brighter for so many in our community. Your kindness and generosity truly embody the spirit of the season.

Embrace the Advent Season with the Jesse Tree and the Advent Fast

Advent is a sacred time of anticipation and preparation as we ready our hearts to celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. As Catholics, we are invited to enter more deeply into this holy season by embracing two beautiful traditions rooted in our faith:

The Jesse Tree: This tradition reflects on the lineage of Christ, tracing salvation history through key figures and events in Scripture. Each day of Advent, an ornament is added to the Jesse Tree, symbolizing figures like Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David, culminating in the coming of Jesus. Through the Jesse Tree, we meditate on the faithfulness of God and the fulfillment of His promises in the Incarnation. This practice is especially meaningful for families, helping children and adults alike to connect Scripture to the joyful mystery of Christmas. The Advent Fast: In the Church, Advent has always been as a penitential season, much like Lent. Reviving the Advent Fast in our homes can help us prepare spiritually for the coming of Christ. This might include abstaining from certain foods, reducing unnecessary indulgences, or offering acts of charity. By embracing simplicity and sacrifice, we mirror the humility and anticipation of the Holy Family as they awaited the birth of Jesus, allowing our hearts to become a worthy dwelling place for Him.

Join the Avila's Vocation Prayer Group on the 1st Monday, after Mass, to pray for priests and seminarians in formation.
