Volunteers Needed for Parish Events

Our parish thrives on the generosity and involvement of its members, and we need your help to continue hosting events that bring our community together. From parish dinners and celebrations to special gatherings and seasonal activities, these events play a vital role in fostering fellowship and faith. We're seeking volunteers to assist with a variety of tasks, such as event setup, organization, hospitality, and cleanup. Whether you can offer your time regularly or just occasionally, your help would be greatly appreciated and make a meaningful impact. If you're interested in volunteering or would like to learn more, please reach out to Lawrence Wallace at llwallace@stlukelakewood.org. Thank you for considering this opportunity to serve and strengthen our parish community!

Shop Locally. Give Globally.

Lakewood Catholic Academy held its annual Christmas Market -- the culmination of a unit on entrepreneurship in design class for fifth graders. Students designed and created Christmas-themed gifts, produced marketing materials, and sold items to eager community members. LCA is honored to donate proceeds from the sales totaling $1,900 to St. Luke's parish mission in El Salvador.

Beware of Holiday Email Scams

During the holiday season, you may receive emails claiming to be from Fr. Kevin, Fr. Patrick, Deacon Tom, or other parish staff members. These scam emails often use the name of someone from our parish but come from an email address that is not associated with the @stlukelakewood.org domain. Please be cautious—these emails are fake. All legitimate parish emails will always come from a (name)@stlukelakewood.org email account. If you have any doubts or concerns about the validity of an email, do not reply or click any links. Instead, contact the parish office for confirmation. Stay safe this holiday season, and thank you for your vigilance!

Join the Choir

Do you love to sing? Come share your gift and join the parish choir! Lift your voice in song and help lead our community in worship and praise during Mass. No prior experience is needed just a love for music and a desire to glorify God through song. For more information or to join, contact Lawrence Wallace at llwallace@stlukelakewood.org. Let's make a joyful noise together!

Thank You for Coming to the Advent Festival and Celebrating with Us!

We are filled with gratitude for everyone who joined us for the Advent Christmas Festival! Your presence made this celebration a beautiful expression of our faith and community as we joyfully prepared for the birth of Christ.

A heartfelt thank you to Barb Price, Lawrence Wallace, Julia Wallace, Brian Sinchak, Tim Conley, the Choirs of St. Clement, St. Luke, St. James, and St. Mark, the LCA Singing Saints, the, and all the students who shared their time and talents. We are also deeply grateful to Fr. Kevin, Fr. Patrick, Fr. Adam Zajac, Fr. Peter Paul, and Deacon Tom for their guidance and support in making the evening so meaningful.

Your dedication and hard work brought the spirit of the season to life and created memories we will cherish. May the peace and joy of Christ fill your hearts this Christmas and throughout the New Year!

St. James Happenings

Can you help us decorate for Christmas?

Our church is always decorated beautifully for Christmas by dedicated volunteers. What a joyful way to anticipate the Birth of Our Lord! If you can help, please meet here in the church at 12:30pm today (after a scheduled Baptism). Thanks

Did You Know?

Our own St. James Church in Lakewood, Ohio has been called one of the best examples of church art in the entire country. Many of us are not very knowledgeable about its symbolic decoration, and so we may not fully appreciate the richness of the art and architecture that inspire such a unique devotional atmosphere here. As space permits in future bulletins, we'll present tidbits of information about our history or art to help you appreciate the uniqueness of our worship space. Some of this information is taken from a 1930's publication by F. R. Webber, a well-known author on church symbolism (title unavailable). We credit additional information to the book, ©Historic St. James: The Art and Architecture of a Landmark Church, by Ladislav Trepal, Professional Photographer and Researcher, and Timothy Barrett, Architectural Historian; published by the Friends of St. James, Inc. In 1925, under the guidance of Fr. Leahy, the current church began construction. The Sicilian Romanesque style was chosen and modelled after the Cathedral of Monreale, in Palermo, Sicily. We enter from the iconic three-arched façade through large and heavy bronze doors, decorated in relief with symbols of the Evangelists. St. Matthew and St. Luke are on the left door and St. Mark and St. John on the right. The two end door pulls have one of the traditional symbols of St. James, a sword representing a cross. Can you find this symbol elsewhere in the church?

Pray the Rosary

Please join us every Thursday evening at 7:00 pm in the church for the recitation of the Rosary. We will pray for all your intentions.

Coffee and Donuts

Please join us for coffee and donuts after Mass. A special invitation is extended to new parishioners and visitors.

Our Lakewood Community

A Meditation: Wonder and Awe

"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" Luke 1:42-43

Elizabeth expressed a beautiful humility in this statement. The Blessed Virgin Mary had just made a long journey to be with Elizabeth in her final months of pregnancy. As soon as our Blessed Mother greeted Elizabeth, Elizabeth's child, Saint John the Baptist, leaped for joy in her womb. Elizabeth acknowledges this and then humbly expresses the fact that she is exceptionally blessed to have Mary, the mother of her Lord, come to visit her. There are many things worth pondering in this visitation of our Blessed Mother. But try to focus upon the humble wonder and awe expressed by Elizabeth. "And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" Elizabeth was clearly grateful for Mary's visit. But it appears that her reaction went even beyond gratitude. She was given the gift of wonder and awe. She clearly knew she was incredibly blessed by the fact that both the Mother of God and her Lord Himself were now in her presence in her home. This gift of wonder and awe that Elizabeth experienced is one of the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. It's a gift that enters a humble heart, enabling it to first see its unworthiness of a special grace given. But then this humble soul receives the special grace and responds with an overwhelming amazement. Thus, not only is gratitude present, but there is also this holy amazement that results in praise of God. In our own lives, there are so many incredible graces we have received from God. But too often we fail to see them for what they are. We fail to see the incredible graces God has given us and, thus, fail to experience the amazement that should result from God's gifts. As you look at your own life, what graces has God given to you? Do you see them? Are you grateful for them? And, if so, are you able to go even beyond gratitude so as to experience a holy wonder and awe of God's goodness and blessings in your life? Though it might be difficult to arrive at this level of amazement, it is a true gift that we must all strive to obtain and experience every day of our lives. Reflect, today, upon this holy gift of the Holy Spirit that Elizabeth experienced. Place yourself at the scene. Try to see the experience within her heart. Try to feel how she felt. Try to sense the praise that resulted. And try to open yourself more fully to receive this same gift of the Holy Spirit in your life. The Lord comes to you constantly by grace, especially every time you receive Him in Holy Communion. For that reason, we must all strive to live a holy wonder and awe every day of our lives. My most glorious Lord, You grace me beyond imagination. Too often, I fail to experience the gratitude and the wonder and awe that should result. Please help me to first see the countless blessings of Your grace and presence in my life. And as I see them, please fill me with the Holy Spirit so that I, too, may continually sing Your worthy praises. Jesus, I trust in You.

Why do Catholic Display Nativity Scenes?

The tradition of displaying nativity scene began with Saint Francis of Assisi, who was awed that God humbled Himself to be born in humility and poverty. To illustrate, he displayed a manger scene in a cave near the Franciscans Chapel complete with donkey and ox. He celebrated Christmas Mass and, according to an eyewitness, the wax figure of Christ child came alive. This pious tradition continues, reminding us that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.

Baptism Class for New Parents - January 12

Our next baptism class will be held on Sunday, January 12, at 12:15 PM at St. Luke Church. This class is for all new parents preparing for their child's baptism. All are warmly invited to attend, but we kindly ask that you contact your parish office beforehand to complete an intake form for your child's baptism. The meeting will take place in the church with Deacon Tom Bizon.

Year-End Giving

As we reflect on the blessings in our lives during this season of giving, we invite you to consider making a year-end gift to the Lakewood Catholic Parishes. Your generosity supports our mission and ministries as we strive to serve our community in faith and love. There are many ways to give: Cash and Appreciated Assets: We gratefully accept gifts of cash, stocks, or bonds. IRA Qualified Charitable Distributions: If you are 70 ½ or older, you may be eligible to make a gift directly from your IRA. This can benefit our ministry while reducing your taxable income. Please consult your financial advisor or IRA administrator to ensure your distribution is made directly to a qualified charity such as our parish. For questions or assistance, please contact your parish office. Thank you for your continued support and generosity!

Order of Alhambra Carmona Caravan

The international Order of Alhambra is a fraternal organization of catholic men and women founded in 1904 dedicated to assisting persons who are intellectually, disabled or handicapped, particularly children. With our Cleveland diocese is the Cleveland chapter, the Carmona Caravan, maybe every second Tuesday of the month at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Garfield Heights, 10806 Granger Rd. During this season of giving, please consider supporting the special children and the nonprofits that serve them. Visit carmonacaravan.org for more info.

Our Lakewood Community

St. Christopher Parish Grief Support Ministry 7-week grief support Program

- Registration Required -

St. Christopher Parish is offering a seven-session grief support program on Thursdays from 2:00 until 3:00 in the Prayer Room, beginning January 9 and ending February 20. This group is intended for adults who have lost a spouse, significant other, parent, sibling, adult child, adult relative, or friend through death. Individuals meet in a small group to share stories of their loved one(s) and how they have struggled with their grief, pray and reflect on Scripture, and discuss helpful information on the grieving process. Participants appreciate that it helps them feel less alone. We build a sense of community and request a commitment to attend all seven sessions. You will learn coping strategies from a helpful book and from other participants to begin healing and moving forward in your life. There is a registration fee of $15. To register, please call Melissa DiFini at the parish office at 440-331-4255 x105 or email mdifini@stchrisparish.com.

Free Rock Salt for Lakewood Residents

The City of Lakewood is offering free rock salt to residents this winter. Salt distribution boxes are available at Kauffman Park, Madison Park, Cove Park, Lakewood Park, and the Lakewood Dog Park. Residents may take up to 5 gallons of salt for personal use on driveways and sidewalks. Please bring your own shovel and bucket to load the salt. After using the salt box, ensure the cover is securely closed to prevent the salt from hardening due to moisture. Stay safe and prepared this winter!

Thank God It's First Friday - West

An inter-parish men's group will meet January 3rd for a First Friday luncheon at St. Clarence Church, 30106 Lorain Road, North Olmsted. Registration begins at 11:15 AM, followed by the luncheon, then an inspirational talk, and concludes with Mass. Please call George Perz at (440) 937-6606 by Tuesday, December 31st to make a reservation. Cost is $16.00.
