Gospel Meditation

Have you ever wondered why the magi had gold, frankincense, and myrrh? Matthew's Gospel tells us, "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh" (Matt. 2:11). Why are these things their "treasures"? One possible answer is they were magicians and astrologers, and these three items were the tools of their questionable trade. In offering them to Christ, they demonstrate that they will cease using such items to predict or control life. They place this baby-king, the God of Israel, at the center of their lives, and not their own devices of control, manipulation and prediction.

Isn't that what we need to do, too? Consider, for example, the magical power of money, symbolized by the magi's gold. Seemingly whatever we ask of money, it does. It wields a god-like power over the world. It can predict the future by guaranteeing better outcomes for us — which is why it is such a tempting alternative to trusting in God. The problem is such absolute trust in money enslaves us to the economic forces that make money so powerful. In paying homage to Jesus with "gold" (i.e., tithing), we participate in his authority over (and therefore freedom from) the magical sway of money.

What things in your life do you use to predict or control your future? What in your life seems to give you power over the world? Those are your treasures. Are you tired of feeling enslaved to them? Find a way to open them and give them to Christ, and you will be freer.

St. Luke Happenings

Epiphany

Question:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer:

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text. Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact? ©LPi

Diocesan Mass for Life - January 17

Join us for the Annual Diocesan Mass for Life on Friday, January 17, 2025, at 10:00 AM at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. This special Mass is a time to pray for the protection of all human life, from conception to natural death. Let us come together in faith to honor the dignity of life and seek God's guidance in building a culture of life. All are welcome! For more details, contact the Diocese of Cleveland Respect Life Office.

Lakewood Community Services Center Seeks Volunteers

If you have a few hours to spare each week and if you want to join Lakewood Community Services Center in the fight to end hunger in the community, these volunteer opportunities could be a perfect fit for you. LCSC is the emergency food pantry for Lakewood, Rocky River, and Westlake and we could use some dedicated help during the hours of 9:45 am to 12:00 pm. We currently provide food assistance to over 2,800 individuals each month: We could not do this important work without our volunteers. Pantry volunteers are responsible for making sure that there is a consistent flow of emergency food available to make sure that clients are served quickly and efficiently. If you are interested in finding out more, please contact Colleen Timm at 216-226-6466. Thank you!

BISHOP MALESIC ISSUES HIS FIRST

PASTORAL LETTER

A FLOURISHING APOSTOLIC CHURCH

Worship
Evangelization
Service

Bishop Malesic invites every Catholic in the Diocese of Cleveland to read his first pastoral letter, written with each of us in mind. The letter reflects on our identity as sons and daughters of God and outlines strategies to boldly follow the call of the Holy Spirit.

In this Mission Year of the Eucharistic Revival, the Bishop encourages reading the letter prayerfully, ideally in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, whether at your parish, school chapel, or nursing home chapel.

Let this letter spark conversations across our diocese as we recommit ourselves to Jesus Christ and deepen our relationship with Him.

Poinsettia Plants

It is well known that St. Clement has the most giving parishioners. With your generosity, we are able to purchase amazing flowers for Christmas. We are also known for our love of singing and love of flowers. A Big Thank You to all who donated money to remember our Family and Friends who have passed on. Thank you for always being so generous to our Parish!

Many Hands Make Light Work

We are asking all who can join us to meet in the church on Sunday, January 12th, at 9:30 am to take down the decorations. We would love to get our church back to "Ordinary Time" with your help. Afterwards we can have some refreshments in the hall and again socialize. Our thanks, again, for taking care of our beautiful church!

Women's Discernment Gathering

A time for women (ages 18+) who are considering consecrated life or actively discerning to come together in prayer and fellowship. Join us on Saturday, January 11th, for 6 pm Holy Hour, 7 pm Vigil Mass - social to follow - 9:30 pm Night Prayer at the Center for Pastoral Leadership Sacred Heart Chapel, 28700 Euclid Ave., Wickliffe 44092. For more information please call, 440-943-7630.

Today - University of Notre Dame Chorale Concert

St. Ignatius of Antioch Parish will host the University of Notre Dame Chorale. The Chorale is the official concert choir of the University of Notre Dame. A mixed ensemble of 70 voices specializing in choral works from the Renaissance to the present. Please join us on Sunday, January 5, 2025 at 2:30pm. It is free and open to the public. You won't want to miss this special opportunity to see this world class chorale. St. Ignatius of Antioch, 10205 Lorain Ave, Cleveland, Ohio 44111 - 216.251.0300.

Pray the Rosary

Please join us as we pray the Rosary in the church Thursdays at 7:45 am before the 8:15 am Mass. A powerful prayer to increase faith, hope and charity.

St. James Happenings

Did you Know? Complicated financial problems faced St. James as the church was under construction during the darkest days of the Depression. For a time the apse was left unpainted until funds were available to complete the decoration.

Do you know who the mural figures represent? Above the high altar is Our Lord in glory, enthroned in Heaven. Around Him are the figures of the Blessed Virgin, St. Joseph, and four of the Archangels. St. Michael holds his flaming sword with which he slays Satan. St. Gabriel is given the lily of the Annunciation and scepter, and a scroll which reads "God is my Strength" while St. Uriel holds a scroll with the words "God is my Light". In the background are adoring angels.

Below this is the Apostolic Frieze, running around the apse. Each of the apostles is represented along with his familiar symbol. St. Peter with his keys, and at the opposite end, St. James with his cross sword and the shell denoting pilgrimage. Between them are St. Andrew, St. John, St. Philip, St. Bartholomew, St. Thomas (with his poor sagging halo!), St. James Minor, St. Matthew, St. Jude, St. Simon, and St. Matthias. Each is depicted with objects symbolizing his martyrdom or some important event in his life.

Prayer to St. James

O Glorious Apostle, Saint James, who by reason of your fervent and generous heart was chosen by Jesus to be a witness of His glory on Mount Tabor, and of His agony in Gethsemane; you, whose very name is a symbol of warfare and victory: obtain for us strength and consolation in the unending warfare of this life, that, having constantly and generously followed Jesus, we may be victors in the strife and deserve to receive the victor's crown in heaven. Amen. St James the Apostle, Pray for Us ...
