Gospel Reflection: Beatitudes and Woes

"But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way." Luke 6:24-26

Luke 6:20-49 offers us a shortened version of the Sermon on the Mount found in Matthew's Gospel. Luke's version of this sermon takes place on a plain, "a stretch of level ground." The teachings in the two Gospels are very similar, despite their difference in length. Luke's teaching on the Beatitudes adds the "woe to you's" quoted above, which are not found in Matthew's version.

The early Church Father Saint Bede comments that Saint Luke's version of the "woes" are meant for those who are "uninstructed hearers" because they "must first be brought by terrors to good works." He goes on to say that the first part of the Beatitudes, the "blessings," are meant for the "perfect" because they "need but be invited by rewards" rather than fear of punishment. The fact that Saint Luke includes a teaching for both the sinner and the saint should lead us to the conclusion that we can benefit from both approaches in our spiritual lives.

When your spiritual life is strong and you are consistently avoiding serious sin, it might be more helpful to reflect regularly upon the blessings found in the Beatitudes. This will have the effect of drawing you into greater perfection as the desire for the reward of holiness becomes the object of your hope.

When your spiritual life is weaker and you are regularly struggling with more serious sin, it might be more helpful to reflect upon the woes of the Beatitudes. This will have the effect of deterring you from the cycle of sin you struggle with, on account of the fear of the consequences of those sins.

In the end, the Beatitudes and their subsequent woes are meant to point us interiorly to the desires of our hearts. We must become more and more aware of what occupies our thinking and desires. Ultimately, wealth or poverty, hunger or satisfaction, worldly praise or persecution do not matter. What matters is that our hearts are detached from the desires identified in this sermon so that we more fully desire only God and His holy will, regardless of the circumstances of life we find ourselves in.

Reflect, today, upon your own spiritual and moral life and first consider whether you are blessed to be living a life that more imitates the saints or whether you more often reflect the serious struggles of the sinner. From there, try to choose which form of teaching you need the most. Do you need to ponder the rewards of seeking even greater beatitude in life so as to grow deeper in holiness? Or do you need Jesus' clear condemnations to help you break free from the cycle of sin with which you are struggling? Humbly identify that which is most helpful to you right now in your spiritual life and allow this full sermon of Jesus to help you on your journey to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Lord of holiness, I do desire to follow You and become truly holy. Please free me from my sin so that I am able to avoid the consequences of those sins. Please help me to also desire the heights of holiness so that I will receive the great rewards that You promised to the saints in Heaven. Jesus, I trust in You.

St. Luke Happenings

Women of the Parishes!

A Seven Sisters group is forming for Fr. Patrick Schultz: three more women are needed. SEVEN SISTERS is... seven women making a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament, each on their special day of the week; by their doing so, their priest is covered in an hour of prayer every day, every week. It is a great blessing to the intercessor, for the priest, and for the church, for in strengthening the priest you strengthen the whole Church. Interested? Contact Patti Hunt 234-222-0353.

Please pray for all those traveling to El Salvador this week to continue the good work of the Lakewood parishes there. May our prayers be with them.

Can you help? We are in need Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers.

Our parish is in need of Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to assist at our weekend Masses. These ministries are essential to our worship, as lectors proclaim the Word of God and Eucharistic Ministers help distribute the Body and Blood of Christ. Those interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion must complete a diocesan training class, and upcoming sessions are available soon. In addition to serving at Mass, Eucharistic Ministers also have the special opportunity to bring Holy Communion to the sick and homebound, ensuring that all members of our community can receive the grace of the Eucharist. If you feel called to serve in one of these ministries, please contact Max Hall at mhall@stlukelakewood.org or via the parish office at 216-521-0184 for more information. Training will be provided, and scheduling is flexible. Thank you for considering this meaningful way to serve the Lord and our parish family!

Did You Know? After entering St. James Church, we are stunned by the beautiful colors throughout: "a mingling of lavish gold and rarer red upon a background of deep blue, accentuated in the sanctuary by rays of blue light from the rose windows." --F.R. Webber, church symbolism author (title unavailable.) Do you know the symbolism of these colors? Gold signifies Our Lord's kingship and also Eternity. Red, in sacred art, symbolizes the blood of the Lamb of God, and also Sacrifice. It also denotes the blood of the Martyrs. Blue is the color calling to mind Heaven, constancy, fidelity, and love. The sanctuary is central in church architecture, beginning with the high altar (used exclusively prior to Vatican II) on the back wall, and the sacrificial altar at center. On the high altar the six candles signify the six days of creation; their flames remind us of Our Lord, the Light of the World. The beautiful gold Tabernacle is centered upon the high altar. On the top of the altar are the five Greek crosses which denote the five wounds of Our Lord. On the front are bronze relief figures of the Agnus Dei, flanked by the symbols of the four evangelists. Next time you enter the church, stop first to acknowledge the Real Presence Our Lord and allow these symbols to enhance your prayer!

Seeking Catholic Men of Action. We act donating our time and skills to aid our Parishes: St. Luke's, St. Clement's, Transfiguration and St. James. We are Catholic men who lead, serve, protect and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and role models and to put charity and community first. Founded on the principles of charity, unity and fraternity, the Knights of Columbus was established in 1882 by Father Michael J. McGivney, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, and a group of parishioners. Their intent? To bring financial aid and assistance to the sick, disabled and needy members and their families. Today, Father McGivney is being considered for sainthood, these are good footsteps to follow.
